

Charles Sturt
University

35 years working with refugee women and children

Charles Sturt University is proud to host keynote speaker Adjunct Associate Professor Eileen Pittaway AM, MBA, PhD for a free public lecture by the Bathurst Refugee Support Group.

Eileen will talk about the fantastic refugee women she has worked alongside, both overseas and following re-settlement in Australia, their amazing strength and courage, what they have achieved and how they have danced as well as cried together.

Adjunct Associate Professor
Eileen Pittaway AM, MBA, PhD

Date: Thursday 7 March 2024

Time: 6.00pm for a 6:30pm start

Where: Building 1292, Room 223

Charles Sturt University

Panorama Avenue, Bathurst

Find out more

→ info.csu.edu.au/brg-public-lecture

This is an International Women's Day event in partnership with the Bathurst Refugee Support Group.